

THE LAKE HELEN NEWS

LAKE HELEN, FLORIDA, NOVEMBER 22, 1906.

MRS. IRENE G. ADAMS, Editor.

No Time and Mine.

I said, "I will walk in the sunlight."
Christ said no, in the shade.
I said, "There's danger there, dear Lord,
And my soul is so dismayed."
He smiled as he sweetly answered,
"Thou shalt fear no evil thing.
The darkness that appalls thee
Is the shadow of my wing."
I reached my hand for a flower,
But he gently drew it in.
"We will gather souls instead," he said,
"From the countless fields of sin."
"Thou wilt go with me, then, Lord," I cried,
"Through the regions fierce and wild."
"I will go with thee," the Master said,
"Thou shalt wait by faith, my child."
I clung in fear to his pierced hands,
As he turned to go away;
And my eyes were blind with falling tears,
As in love I heard him say:
"I will send to thee the Comforter,
The unto whom is given
The mission to guard thy footsteps here,
And I will watch in Heaven."

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by all Druggists.

The Baby Over the Way.

Across in my neighbor's window,
With its tints of satin and lace,
I see, with its crown of ringlets,
A baby's innocent face.
The throngs in the street look upward,
And everyone, grave and gay,
Has a nod and a smile for the baby
In the mansion over the way.

Just here in my cottage window,
His chin in his dimpled hands,
And a patch on his faded apron,
The child that I live for stands.
He has kept my heart from breaking
For many a weary day,
And his face is as pure and handsome
As the baby's over the way.

Sometimes when we sit together,
My grave little man of three
Sore vexes me with the question,
"Does God live in Heaven like me?"
And I say, "Yes, yes, my darling!"
Though I almost answer nay,
As I see a nursery candle
In the mansion over the way.

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by all Druggists.

Twilight Musings.

The gems that I found in the wild-wood,
The leaves with their colors so gay,
And the playmates that I knew in my childhood,
Have vanished forever away.

But their beauty, how well I remember
Even though they have long ceased to be,
For the bleak icy winds of December
Have cruelly robbed them from me.

The world and its pathway how dreary,
And the moments that tastelessly fly,
But there's rest for the soul that is weary,
In the glorious mansion on high.

Oh! 'tis there that I fain shall remember,
When from trouble my spirit shall flee,
That no more will the winds of December
Take my gems and loved ones from me.

'Tis there in the realms of the holy,
I will welcome the long promised rest,
With the penitent, meek and the lowly,
Recline on Immanuel's breast.

And in triumph we then shall remember,
At the throne of the one we adore,
That the cold, chilly winds of December,
Can part us asunder no more.

Always was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists.

Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by all Druggists.

Atheism is rather in the life of man, not so much in his heart.

Has Found the True Stomach Remedy. The old, original GINGER STOMACH Remedy. You know what you are taking. It is true and genuine in a hundred years. No cure, no pay. 50c.

STRICKLIN-CLARKSON

Happy Marriage of Two Popular Young People.

The wedding of Miss Alberta Clarkson of this city, and D. Spencer Stricklin occurred Wednesday, Nov. 21, at 11 a. m. at the Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Oates, pastor of the DeLand Baptist church, of which the bride is a member, performed the ceremony. Her brother, Mr. A. D. Clarkson, gave away the bride, who was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Mae Ryland, of DeLand, and Miss Elsie Uedeman, of Jacksonville, as bridesmaids. The best man was Mr. Harry Sams, of Smyrna; the ushers, K. P. Paddison, of Lake Helen; Cooper Staley, DeLand; Jack Stith, Atlanta; J. P. Clarkson, Jacksonville.

As the wedding party entered the church and proceeded to the space near the altar Mrs. Andrews played the wedding march.

The bride wore a cream veil dress and white Irish point lace hat, and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were attired in blue and white and also carried chrysanthemums. The decorations, under the deft hands of Mrs. Maynard Bond, Mrs. Wm. Andres and Mr. Paddison transformed the beautiful audience room into a bower of green and floral beauty. A large company assembled to witness the most significant and solemn rites in which these two young people will ever be the principal factors, and to offer sincere good will and congratulations.

The bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Clarkson, where delicious refreshments were served before they departed via carriage to DeLand, for a visit to the home of the parents of the groom in Georgia. The traveling suit of the bride was scarlet silk, hat and umbrella the same.

The wedding presents, valuable and abundant, testify of the love and admiration entertained for the charming bride by a host of friends. The groom is a comparative stranger, but has a pleasing personality and is a business man at Indian Springs, this county, where he has prepared a home for their happy return after Thanksgiving.

Dance Next Friday.

The Social Club of Lake Helen have issued invitations for a fine dancing party, with orchestra, at Library Hall, Friday evening, November 30. The committee in charge of the arrangements are M. H. Weaver, C. H. Pelton, L. P. Mace. Dancing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Services are held in the Amusement Hall at the Camp every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The program is somewhat impromptu, music and speaking by the "lay members," as the regular lecturers for the season have not yet arrived. Next Sunday a symposium, "What will aid the progress of this camp," will occupy the hour, and everyone is invited to participate.

Services at the Camp.

A rate of $25, return included, from Chicago to Tampa, Nov. 20, good for thirty days, made by the railroads, will bring many visitors to the State Fair of Florida, and to friends and scenes all over the State, that have seemed heretofore beyond the price to be afforded.

There's No Use

talking, you can't beat Herbine for the liver. The greatest regulator ever offered to suffering humanity. A positive cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, and all its due to a torpid liver. Try a bottle and you will never use anything else. Sold by all Druggists.

With seven inches of snow at Chattanooga last week, and more cold as one goes northward, how visitors will dread to leave this land of smiling shine and warmth. Miss Irene Baker expects her mother, Mrs. Ida Baker, from northeastern Iowa, to come on this excursion for a month's visit.

Mr. Russell went to DeLand Monday, his first trip there in six months, which proves that he is on the road to recovery.

Robert Bond went to St. Augustine Tuesday.

Mr. Paddison and Mr. Caseman visited the State Fair from Friday till Monday, and declare it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chapman came last week from Connecticut and will occupy Mrs. Todd's cottage No. three.

Mr. Armstrong, wife and daughter, of Ohio, came Monday to spend the winter in Lake Helen.

Miss Alberta Clarkson attended a linen shower in her honor Friday evening, given by several of her intimate girl friends at the home of her cousin Mae Ryland, in DeLand.

Miss Elsie Uedeman came Monday from Jacksonville to act as bridesmaid at the wedding of her friend, Miss Clarkson.

Mrs. Barnes is at Coronado for a couple of weeks looking after her cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. Aiken are guests of Mayor and Mrs. Hopkins.

Mark Hazel has a call from a Northern manufacturing company at a fine salary, but is undecided about accepting it because of the illness of his mother.

Miss Jessie Pelton and Miss Marjorie Mace came home for the Friday evening party and a Sunday visit to their homes.

Mrs. Vest is delighted with the presence of her only sister, who arrived this week from Ohio for a visit.

Mourn Not the Dead.

Mourn not the dead who calmly lie
By God's own hand composed to rest;
For, hark! a voice from yonder sky
Proclaims them blest—supremely blest:

With them the toil and strife are o'er;
Their labors end, their sorrows cease;
For they have gained the blissful shore
Where dwells serene eternal peace.

Mourn not the dead, though like the flower
Just opening to the morning ray;
Nipped by disease's cruel power,
They fell from love's embrace away.

Where breathes no chill or tainted air,
Where falls no darkness of the tomb,
They prove the loving Savior's care,
And blossom in immortal bloom.

Mourn not the dead, whose lives declare
That they have nobly borne their part;
For victory's golden crown they wear,
Reserved for every faithful heart.

They rest with glory wrapped around;
Immortal on the scroll of fame,
Their works their praises shall resound,
Their name an everlasting name.

Drop the warm tear, for Jesus wept,
Sorrow shall find relief in tears;
But let no secret grief be kept
To waste the soul through nameless years.

They rest in hope their hallowed dust
Is watched, and from the grave shall rise,
Earth shall restore her sacred trust,
Made all immortal for the skies.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at River-ton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At all Drug stores. 50 cents.

A lady said to us some time ago that she wanted to do some good, so she had decided to give a dance at her house, she needed some liver medicine.

There is no Reason

why your baby should be thin, and fretful during the night. Worms are the cause of this, sickly babies. It is natural that a healthy baby should be fat and sleep well. If your baby does not retain its food, don't experiment with colic cures and other medicines, but try a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and you will soon see your baby have color and laugh as it should. Sold by all Druggists.

First Child: "Let's play menagerie."

Second Child: "All right. How's it played?"

First Child: "I'll pretend I'm a monkey, and you feed me on your cake."

A Mountain of Gold
could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Caroline, Wis., as did one 25c box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 23 long years. Greatest antiseptic healer of Piles, Wounds, and Sores. 25c at all Drug stores.

"Your last husband was tall and dark," said the fortune teller.

"Why that is my present husband," said the woman in alarm. "Don't tell me he is to be the last."

Practically every man is an atheist who lives without God in the world.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Lavative Broom Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.
